Latest News.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Some occasional flowers, thrown on the Confederate graves at Arlington, produced a disturbance, which was checked by the guards, who prevented their decoration. This policy was enforced upon the authorities by military, supported by thoughtless persons (who gathered and trampled upon the flowers.) This act, and the necessity to guard the graves is universally deplored, but the vast and mixed crowd rendered the guard necessary, otherwise there would have been rows and probably bloodshed. There was a heavy storm here to-day.

FROM MEMPHIS.

MEMPHIS, May 31.—The Supreme Court at Brownsville decides unanimously that the right to vote is secured to citizens by a constitutional declaration and the bill of rights, that the elective franchise stands equally high with the right to hold property, which once vested, cannot be withdrawn without due process of law, and that the power conferred by the Legislature upon the Governor to set aside regulations is illegal, and the Governor's action in the matter null.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 31.—In the Old School Presbyterian Assembly a resolution was offered conveying the Christian salutation to the Presbyterian Churches of the Southern States, expressing the desire that the day is not distant when all Presbyterians will be united in a great organization that shall cover our whole land.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—David Turner has been appointed Collector of the port of Georgetown, Va. The Government has advised of an engagement between her troops and the Indians, near Fort Griffin Texas. Fourteen Indians were killed.

FROM LIVERPOOL.

LIVERPOOL, May 31.—Minister Motley was received with addresses of welcome. Liverpool and American members of Chambers of Commerce have proceeded to London.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—John H. Gould has been appointed Collector of the first Georgia district.

Four first class ironclad revenue cutters are to be constructed by the Treasury department.

Sentor Wade visited Gen. Grant to-day, and received the commission of Government Director to the Union Pacific Railroad.

Stephen A. Douglass' mother is dead aged 80 years.

The President's departure for Annapolis on Thursday, and for West Point on the 10th. Internal revenue for the month $20,250,000.

The commander of the Pacific squadron has been ordered to give all possible aid to the American and Chinese Telegraph Company.

FROM MONTGOMERY.

MONTGOMERY, May 31.—Messrs. Bingham, Loughbridge and Eldridge, the Congressional Committee to investigate the charges against Judge Busted, reached this city on Saturday night. Judge Busted adjourned court to-day until twelve o'clock Wednesday.

FROM ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 1.—Mr. Motley, in replying to the address of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, was very pacific, and deprecated hostilities between the two countries as adverse to the happiness of the world, progress, civilization and the best hopes of humanity. Mr. Motley made a strong point of the blood alliance between the United States and England, concluding: "My most strenuous efforts shall be devoted to the further good understanding on the basis of enduring friendship and kindly relations, in accordance with the great principles of justice and honor, which are the immutable and only safe and lasting guide in the conduct of States."

FROM CUBA.

HAVANA June 1.—Troops are in active pursuit of filibusters who landed at Bay Nape. Three of their guns have been captured, and Manuel Quarez, commander of riflemen, killed. A heavy engagement has taken place at Puerto Padre, and a skirmish is reported near Confugas between regulars and insurgents. Dulce's order sending a number of political prisoners to Spain has been revoked. The British brig James Crow, with no losses from the fugitives for New York, was lost on the 23d.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Wm. A. Pile has been appointed Governor of New Mexico, which thus disposes of Confederate Colonel Crowe, of Alabama, appointed and confirmed to that post, but subsequently found disqualified.

Revenue receipts yesterday reached nearly three millions, arising mainly from incomes.

FROM ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 1.—The Irish church bill passed on the third reading by 361 to 337, meeting uproarious cheers from the ministerial benches.

Nearly all the Journals have articles to-day on the pacification addresses to Mr. Motley, and discuss the probable future relations between Great Britain and the United States.

The Times, after contrasting Sumner's speech in the Senate with Mr. Motley's language, hopes that the peaceful tendency of the latter is not a tribute to appearances, but a real practical indication of the intention of his government.

Setting aside all controversy with Great Britain, the Times offers Mr. Motley a hearty welcome. The Times is assured that both the Government and the people of the nation will reciprocate his friendly expressions.

FROM MAINE.

LEWISTON, June 2.—A boat with nine men was capsized over the falls here to-day, four of the men drowning.

FROM CUBA.

MATanzas, June 1.—The property confiscated between the 1st of April and the 1st of June produced $70,000.

The city has been terribly excited since yesterday. Volunteers are arriving, and serious riots are apprehended. A heavy engagement has taken place between Bay Nape and Bouvia. An official report announces that cannon and all the other munitions of war brought by the filibusters has been captured.

CHICAGO, June 2.—A Fort Smith special to the Tribune states that a party of two hundred and fifty Cherokees attacked an unprotected settlement of whites one hundred and sixty miles from Topeka, Kansas, on Sunday morning, and in the evening, massacred under a pretense of friendship, thirteen white women and children. The women were ravished and their bodies mutilated.

Radical Split in Tennessee. A Nashville dispatch to the Louisville Courier Journal reports that Senator and Stokes have both accepted the nomination of the Radical Union, which never organized. As neither Stokes nor Stokes has the support of the majority of negroes, while Senator's friends have for their leaders the young, vigorous, go-ahead men of the Republican party in the State. The Knoxville White and Memphis Post, in the eastern and western divisions of the State, endorse Senator's election, while the Press & Times, of this city, is the Stokes organ.

It may be now stated that Senator's election is a foregone conclusion, as his present occupancy of the gubernatorial chair makes him master of the situation. If he should fail to get a majority of the votes cast, he has absolute power to throw out the vote of any and every county in the State. It was in this way that Brownlow always managed to elect Congressmen and other officials a few his own hand.

INTERVIEW BETWEEN WELLS AND GRANT.—A correspondent of the Petersburg Express makes the following statement: "Wells does not report well of Grant. To the exclusion of other terms, I will give his account of his last interview with the President, as reported to me: 'Grant is an ass,' said Wells bitterly, 'and what is more, he is a drunken ass. When we entered the room, he was leaning over the table, with a cigar in his mouth, and his chin resting on both hands. His eyes were fishy, and he ineffectually attempted to rise as we came in. We introduced our business at once. Mr. Wells said he desired peace and harmony throughout the country, and will even sacrifice his principles (if I have any) to secure these things. Of course, as far as I can do so, without interfering with my main purpose, I will favor you as a good Republican, but you must not expect me to venture the success of my administration in your behalf. I can tell that the Virginians themselves are chiefly to be consulted in this matter, not you. I shall put the same views before my Cabinet.'"

An Eventful Day in New York. Sinking of two Steamboats and Explosion of a Boiler in New York Harbor.

Terrible Fire at Hunter's Point.—Ten Thousand Barrels of Petroleum Consumed. A Millionaire Cuts his Throat. Reported Indignities in the Police Exchange in a Bowdoin Book. Determined Suicide at Turin.—Another Mystery Disclosed on the First River.—A Most Remarkable Day in History, &c., &c., &c.

The above is the caption of the local columns of the New York World, of the 26th inst: The World publishes its detailed account, filling more than four columns of the paper, of the events referred to in the above. For the past few days the World has given up a share of its space to the necessary recounting of murder and disaster. Monday we had the Stanton street outrage and the Westchester county murder. Yesterday we were regaled with the Sheriff's list of casualties and crime, upon which the reader so inclined may suppose horrors to his content. Whether the increasing temperature of yesterday was in any manner responsible for this outbreak, or whether this is but the beginning of one of those inexplicable epidemics of disaster which are invariably and mysteriously enough associated with murder and outrage, and come about at long intervals, and die out when the community is satiated with horror, who can say? Yesterday differed but little from the days which immediately preceded it. The sun shone warmer, the air had a sultry hint in its of the summer at hand, but there were none to prognosticate in the cool freshness of the delicious morning the train of, or rather the almost simultaneous accidents which, in different localities, were to take place without warning, and one cannot read the subjoined accounts without being insensibly worked upon by that old superstition that at certain times some malign influence obtains, unusual and powerful in its nature, and whereby among them. It is not alone that a seemingly stomachic heat so suddenly rent to the crowded docks, and that another explodes its boiler in the dense labyrinth of shipping and traffic, and still another, coming up the bay, collides with a passing craft, while a ravaging fire is sweeping away property along the opposite shore of the East river, and that we have the inevitable accidents of crime. Men at this crisis suddenly cut their throats, wives are beaten, children are starved to death, and fendishness follows catastrophe. Doubtless, science based upon statistics will one day be able to predict these cycles of affliction, and measure their duration. At present we can only narrate them with the exactitude, and so far depart from the reporter's method of fact method as to join our readers in a moment's surprise at the strange coincidence that loads one morning with such a pitiful record as we spread out below.

Some genius has conceived the brilliant idea to press all the lawyers into the military service, because their charges are so great no one can build with them.

OBITUARY.

DIED on the 20th of May, Miss M. J. Grant, relict of Mr. Joseph Giddens, in her 73d year. She was born in Lincoln county, North Carolina, in 1798. For years she had been a true and faithful member of the Baptist church, bearing many of the rich and beautiful fruits of a Christian. The rare sympathy and goodness of heart she possessed, made her a coveted treasure to the sick and suffering.

The many friends she leaves on earth will miss her kindly smile and her warm, glowing heart. When they fondly try to recall her image, she stands connected with many of the happy scenes of yore. In other and brighter days she is remembered as the pleasant, cheerful, and much beloved friend who moved in our midst, in all the gentleness and loveliness of a noble woman and devout Christian. She leaves a son and his interesting little family, to sadly mourn that she is no more—the severed link uniting the cloud of sorrow, and teaches them how deeply the heart can suffer—what bitter draughts are cooled in separating from those so fondly loved.

In her last days grace was given her to make soft the dying bed, and her last words pointed to that glory world, her happy home in heaven, where now to her the mysteries of eternity are unveiled, and knowing Jesus as he is, she prides him as she ought.

DIED, September 19th, 1888, little Josie Collins, daughter of Mrs. Isabella Leatherwood. But eight fleeting years had been her life, she died ruthlessly snatched the mother's only treasure from the arms of devotion and love, leaving a wound that heaven alone can heal.

DIED, at his residence at Edgewood, May 28th, 1889, Rev. A. D. Chandler, Judge of the Court of Probate for Calhoun county, aged nearly sixty years. Brother Chandler was known to be a upright man, one that loved the word of God; one that worshipped with the people of God; one that sympathized with the death of death, he told his friends that as for his part he was prepared, though he had a hankering desire to assist in rearing his helpless children.

Brother Chandler died in the faith and consequently his grave is a happy one. The following resolutions were passed by the District Conference of the Congregational Methodist church, of which brother Chandler was a member:

Resolved, that we sympathize with the bereaved wife, Sister Chandler and her orphan children.

Done in conference, May 22nd, 1889. JOHN M. FARR, Pres. WILLIAM H. BYANS, Secy. Z. BROOKS, Com. E. W. VANGHAN, on WILLIAM H. BYANS, obituary.

To the People of Alabama. In another column will be found the Reduced Rates of the Montgomery Daily and Weekly Mail. The Mail is printed on new broad head type of the very latest style, and the publishers take pleasure in presenting it to the people of the South in its new dress, with a greatly increased list of subscribers and readers, with the greatest confidence that they will not only find more in it to interest and entertain them than ever before, but that, in a few months, its political news will be more gratifying than any we have had for years. It will indicate our early return to peace and power, and the re-establishment of State prosperity. In the uncertainty which now exists as to our political and business future, there is every reason why all heads of families and everybody connected with them, should take a well-considered career fifteen years ago, under the editorial management of Jonathan J. Hooper, that stalwart defender of State Rights, needs no introduction to the people of Alabama. Its history for the past ten years, in which it has never ceased to contest every inch of ground with the oppressor, and to which it has been made to the vengeance of an unscrupulous enemy, in the forcible removal of local advertisements, and finally to the actual imprisonment of its editor by the command of a kinsman's impostor, appeals to the democracy of Alabama to stand by us as we have stood by them. The appeal is, however, hardly necessary! The Mail has such solid assurances of support that it knows that it knows that the people of Alabama are true to those who are true to themselves. Thanking our friends for their constant favors, we beg them to continue sending us lists of subscribers from every section of the State.

PUBLISHERS, MONTGOMERY, Ala. J. H. HARRISON & CO., Geo. H. has been established sixteen years, and is known all over the country as the place to buy Good Watches and Jewelry, and to have good work done.

THE WONDERFUL PROPERTIES OF THE Pyraforce is showing itself daily in the blooming cheeks of our former emaciated citizens, all of whom declare that until they tried this great chills and fever expeller, they knew not what it was to be clear, even for a few days, of the scourge of our southern country; but thanks to science and our enterprising townsman, we need no longer fear this great scourge, and we can now go on our way rejoicing that at last a conqueror is at our hands which will instantly expel from our system chills and fever, dumb ague, and those diseases incidental to malarious climates. Keep a bottle of the Pyraforce in the house, and as soon as the chill or fever is felt commence taking it, and at once you are really making a lasting and permanent cure.

KEYSER'S OIL OF LIFE cures all pains and aches, and is the great rheumatic remedy.

GRACE GREENWOOD has sold her "Little Pilgrim" to Alfred L. Sewall & Co., Publishers of "THE LITTLE CORPORA," of Chicago. The Pilgrim has been published as a children's magazine for over fifteen years, and has been a popular juvenile, until nowstop "pilgrimage" on its own account, and hereafter bear "aid" to the conquering Western Napoleon, THE LITTLE CORPORA, the well deserved circulation of which was even before this addition larger than that of any other juvenile magazine in the world.

Grace Greenwood still writes for it. The July number begins a new volume, and we advise our friends to send on the subscription, for one, one dollar, which is the price for one year, and give their children this unique, original magazine, which has no superior anywhere. Those who subscribe during June, will receive the June number extra.

"To be to fun, I smell the blood of an Englishman!" What a sickening smell! odor of fresh, warm, rushing blood! The odor of smothering, steaming, unquenched life! Who can abide to dwell upon it? (Quere.) Why do not who have sensitive organs feel the power of this odor? The odor of the most powerful destroyer of bad odors in the world!

TO CONSUMPTIVES. THE Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the most certain cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which will find a cure for Consumption, Asthma, Hoarseness, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings county, New York.

HARDIE & ROBINSON, COTTON FACTORS, AND GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS, No. 5, Central Block, Water Street No. 5 Selma, Ala.

Those who have entrusted us with their patronage heretofore, we announce to them and the public our continuance of the Cotton Factorage and Commission Business.

Hoping by energy, promptness and a strict observance of instructions, together with increased facilities and enlarged experience, to be able to protect and advance the interests of those who may favor us with their patronage.

All orders promptly executed with care and economy. Cotton intended for us should be consigned to us upon delivery to Railroad, so that we may attend to weighings, sampling and storing on its arrival here.

We are supplied with Baling Stuffs, including the heaviest and best brands of Powerloom Baling, and English Ties of the finest iron and most improved patents, and will supply the same as Provisions or Money, as advances on Cotton consigned to us.

HARDIE & ROBINSON. J. M. RENfro, is the authorized Agent for the above House in Calhoun and surrounding counties. Sept. 19, 1889.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS. We are now prepared to furnish, on short notice, at manufacturer's prices freight added.

REAPERS, MOWERS

POETRY.
ACROSS THE RIVER.

When for me the silent ear
Parts the Silent River,
And I stand upon the shore
Of the strange Forever.
Shall I miss the loved and known?
Shall I vainly seek mine own?
Mid the crowd that come to meet Spirits sin-forgiven—
Listening to their echoing feet
Down the streets of heaven—
Shall I know a footstep near?
That I listen, wait for, here?

Then will one approach the brink
With a hand extended,
One of whose thoughts I loved to think
Ere the will was rendered, Saying, "Welcome! we have died,
And again are side by side."

Saying, "I will go with thee,
That thou be not lonely;
To you hills of mystery;
I have waited only Until now, to climb with thee
Yonder hills of mystery."

Can the bonds that make us here
Know ourselves immortal, Drop away, like foliage near,
At life's inner portal?
What is holiest below
Must forever live and glow.

I shall love the angels well,
After I have found them
In the mansions where they dwell,
With the glory round them.
But at first without surprise,
Let me look in human eyes.

Step by step our feet must go
Up the holy mountain;
Drop by drop within us flow
Life's unfading fountain.
Angels sing with crowns that burn;
We shall have a song to learn.

He who on our earthly path
Bids us help each other—
Who his help-befored hath Made our Elder Brother—
Will bid us clasp the chain of love
Closer when we meet above.

Therefore dread I not to go
O'er the Silent River;
Dearly, thus listening ear I know;
Bear me, then, to life's shore,
Through the waters, to the shore,
Where mine own have gone before!
[Lucy Larcom.]

BOIL IT DOWN!

Whatever you have to say, my friend,
Whether witty, or grave or gay,
Condense as much as ever you can,
And say in the readiest way;
And whether you write of rural affairs,
Or particular things in town,
Just take a word of friendly advice—
Boil it down!
For if you go spluttering over a page
When a couple of lines will do,
Your butter is spread so much you see,
That the bread looks plainly through.
So when you have a story to tell,
And would like a little renown,
To make sure of your wish my friend,
Boil it down!

When writing an article for the press,
Whether prose or verse, just try
To utter your thoughts in the fewest words
And let them be heard dry.
And when it is finished and you suppose
It is done exactly brown,
Just look over it again, and then
Boil it down.

For editors do not like to print
An article lazily long,
And the general reader does not care
For a couple of yards of song.
So gather your wits in the smallest space,
If you'd win the author's crown,
And every time you write my friend,
Boil it down.

CRIME AND SUMMARY PUNISHMENT.—
One W. R. Bramburg was shot and killed on Tuesday last, at the residence of E. D.
Kennedy, on the Plank Road, 24 miles from this place, under the following aggravating circumstances:

It appears that Bramburg had a wife and several children, whom he deserted.
He made the acquaintance of a respectable young girl, only fifteen years of age and succeeded in seducing her. She was living with her mother, who is an invalid.
Bramburg, on this occasion, visited the house, and managed to abduct the girl—getting seven or eight miles from her home.—Was immediately pursued by a party of the girl's relatives and friends.
As they rode up within sight of the black-hearted villain and his victim, he cocked a gun at the party, but one of the pursuers wrote quick for him, and shot him dead.
The girl was then taken back to her mother.—Tribune Monitor.

THIRTY DISHEARTENING.—We were shown yesterday a hundred or more cotton plants, which had been promiscuously drawn from different portions of the county, out of which not a dozen could be found that would have lived to bear fruit. The leaves appeared healthy and fresh, but their tenderness in growth led to an examination of the plant, when it was found that the roots were dead, there being small roots coming just under the surface of the ground to keep the plant alive, while the main root was entirely dead. It is believed that ninety per cent of the already thinned and irregular stand will die out when the present cold and damp weather gives way to the warm dry days of June.—Caldwell Appeal.

A Scotchman asked an Irishman why farthings were coined in England, and Pat's answer was, "To give Scotchmen an opportunity to subscribe for charitable institutions."

Love can excuse anything but meanness; but meanness kills love, cripples even natural affection without esteem; true love cannot exist.

THE Law requires Executors, Administrators and Guardians to make annual accounts; and on their failure to do so, it imposes a duty under the Law, to see that such settlements are made. The settlements of all Executors, Administrators and Guardians are now due for the past year 1868, and notice is hereby given that all who fail to be and appear at my office, on or before the 1st day of May, 1869, and then and there file their accounts and vouchers for settlements, will be held liable to the law in respects.

Radway's Ready Relief
IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.
IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.
IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.
IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.
IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.
IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.
IS A CURE FOR EVERY PAIN.

It was the first, and is the only PAIN REMEDY, that will instantly stop the most excruciating pains, allay inflammation, and cure congestions, whether of the Lungs, Stomach, Bowels, or other glands and organs, by one application.
IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES.
No matter how violent or excruciating the pain, the Red-ridden, Inflamed, Crippled, Rheumatic, Nervous, Neuritic, or prostrated with disease may suffer,
RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
will, in from one to twenty minutes, afford ease and comfort, and this medicine, so rapid in stopping pain, can be purchased for 50 cts per bottle at almost every druggist's and country merchant's store on this continent, and within one hour's distance of almost every habitation in the United States.
Millions who have used Radway's Ready Relief for 25 years know that ONE 50 cent bottle, diluted in one gallon of proof spirits, will make a better Liniment, Pain Paint, Killer of Pains, King of Pains, equal in quantity to 144 Bottles of the Sizes of these Lotions that are sold at 25 cents.

And the public should also know that all these lotions are kept in vast quantities of Radway's Ready Relief. If these who are now suffering Pain—no matter what the cause may be, or by what name it is called—if external, apply Radway's Ready Relief to the part of the body where the pain is present. If internal, 20 DROPS diluted in water, as a drink, whether Croup, Spasms, Inflammation, Congestion, Asiatic Cholera, Chills and Fever, the most violent, excruciating, and torturing pains, will be stopped in from ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES.

One fifty cent Bottle of RADWAY'S READY Relief will do more service, and cure more complaints that are daily occurring in every family than $25 expended in prescriptions for drugs.

There is not another remedial agent in this world that will cure FEVER AND AGUE;
and all other Malaria, Billions, Scurvy, Typhoid, Yellow and other Fevers (aided sometimes with the Radway's Pills), so quick and without annoyance to the patient, or leaving ill effects after the cure, as Radway's Ready Relief.

Millions of people throughout the world know how quick it will cure all ordinary complaints; for in all diseases where PAIN, INFLAMMATION, or CONGESTION is present, its effects are instantaneous. But in FEVER and AGUE, Asiatic Cholera, Yellow Fever, as these diseases are exhibited in the tropics.
RADWAY'S READY RELIEF has proved invaluable, and will cure these terrible fevers quicker, without entailing the frightful penalties of exhausted liver, raw sores, disordered kidneys, and sulfur-colored skin, that are sure to follow the use of the "Choleragones," "Aqua cures," and other agents to the heroic Quinine, Mercuro, Arsenic, and other treatments where the medicines used accumulate, & become deposited in the system.
RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the best and cheapest, and safest remedial agent that can be used for FEVER and AGUE, Billions, and other Fevers.

NOT ONE
person need suffer, be they ever so much exposed to FEVER and AGUE, if they will only take RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. Keep these bottles open with Radway's Pills. Hand-reds in the west, who have heretofore been doctoring at the rate of one and two hundred dollars for a few months' treatment, are keeping themselves and families free from FEVER & AGUE, Chills and Fever, Rheumatism, &c., for one or two dollars a year, spent for Radway's Ready Relief & Radway's Pills (contd.).

Radway's Ready Relief is an old established remedy. Under the new process of manufacture, it secures properties that will cure and prevent Small-Pox, Typhoid and Scarlet Fever, Asiatic Cholera, Dengue, Disentery, &c., and as a Pain Remedy it acts like magic. NOT ONE HOUR need one suffer with pain, or remain one week lying in bed from Rheumatism, or any other acute or inflammatory disease. The Ready Relief will afford instant ease to all. Price only 50 cents per bottle.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, approved the 10th day of October, 1868, it is provided as follows: to-wit: "It shall be the duty of the Probate Judge of each county in this State to designate a newspaper in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications, of any and every character required by law to be made in this County, shall be published; which paper so designated shall be the official organ in and for said county," and in obedience to the requirements of said act, I, as Judge of Probate for Calhoun County, Alabama, did heretofore designate the "St. Clair County Eagle," as the official organ in and for said County of Calhoun, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun should be published, said designation to remain until recalled or changed by me—
And the "Jacksonville Republican" being a County paper, published in the Town of Jacksonville, Alabama, and in my opinion, clearly within the provisions of said act,
I therefore recall and change my order designating the St. Clair County Eagle, as the official organ for said County of Calhoun, and designate the said Jacksonville Republican as the official organ hereafter, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun shall be published. This designation to remain so long as in my opinion, the Editor of said Jacksonville Republican conducts said paper so as to be within the provisions of said act.

DARBY'S
PROPHYLACTIC FLUID.
A CHALLENGE TO THE WORLD!

We challenge the world to produce a better or a stronger recommendation for any article for any purpose than the following:
December 1st, 1868.
We very cheerfully unite our testimony in favor of the great merits of the valuable disinfectant manufactured by Prof. Darby, and known as DARBY'S PROPHYLACTIC FLUID.
From the reputation of Prof. Darby as a scientific gentleman, from our own knowledge of this preparation, and from the general experience in which it is held wherever known, we have no hesitation in recommending it as one of the most valuable household articles with which we are acquainted.

FROM CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 9.—In the case of Amador Craig vs. Sprague for a breach of promise of marriage, a verdict of one hundred thousand dollars was obtained by the complainant.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The Cubans in New York received distressing news Sunday night, and there is much weeping among the women. It is whispered that (esperado was sold out. Another rumor is that the volunteers and patriots frayed.

Several important clerks in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury were removed to-day.

Information from a reliable source in Havana has been received here, asserting that the Cubans are engaged in active offensive movements, and were never in better spirits or more sanguine of success.

Telegrams from Havana deny the report that any number of Cubans or any officer of the Cuban forces surrendered to Valmiedo.

The excitement in Cuban circles in New York Sunday night was originated by the report, telegraphed by the Spaniards, that Cespedes had surrendered, subsequent dispatches from Cuban sources prove the report to be entirely unfounded.

FROM ENGLAND.

LIVERPOOL, June 9.—Eight thousand emigrants left here for America last week.

FROM MONTGOMERY.

MONTGOMERY, June 7.—The Democratic Convention at Troy on yesterday nominated A. N. Worthy, of Pike, for Congress in the second district. His disabilities have been removed by act of Congress.

The Radicals met in this city yesterday and nominated C. W. Buckley as their candidate.

The Radical Convention to nominate for the third district met at Opelike yesterday.

There is a wide split between the native and carpet-bag elements. The scenes of the Nashville Convention are being repeated, and both sides are indulging in bitter reproaches.

FROM SPAIN.

CORDOVA, June 12.—A Republican meeting was held here to-day, 50,000 people being present. Delegates from every province participated, and a protest against monarchy adopted. Revolutionary speeches were made. Spanish and American flags were displayed, eliciting enthusiastic shouts. While the meeting was in progress a military and civil guard interfered, producing a panic, in which women and children were trampled upon and several lives lost. The crowd then barricaded the streets, and a serious affray was apprehended.

FROM LONDON.

LONDON, June 12.—In the House of Commons the debate on the Alabama Claims question was postponed until the 10th of July.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Cubans here have dispatches reporting that two expeditions, over six hundred strong, with arms and ammunition, had safely landed. They are composed chiefly of soldiers of the late war.

The Cuban forces have been divided into two corps, one of which has been put under command of Gen. Jordan.

A battle between Jordan's and Lee's forces is daily expected. Jordan has over 2,000 Americans in his corps.

FROM PARIS.

PARIS, June 12.—The tumult in the streets continues. Cavalry paraded the streets all last night, but met with no resistance. Arrests continue to be made. The streets became more tranquil after midnight. A strong detachment of military is posted in the streets to prevent an outbreak.

FROM LONDON.

LONDON, June 11.—An explosion took place at the Wales coal mines. One hundred and twenty persons are reported killed.

The ship Great Northern was wrecked near Bombay. Fifteen persons were lost.

Nineteen members of the Orange Lodge were arrested for disturbances. Subsequently a collision took place between some citizens and the police. Several seriously injured.

FROM CUBA.

HAVANA, June 13.—A severe engagement is reported near Puerto Principe, in which one hundred are said to have been killed, including Larnore. Reliable information wanting.

A Santiago dispatch, through a Spanish source, says a schooner landed one thousand filibusters and 60 mules at East Santiago. Through the treachery of the guides the filibusters were betrayed and sixty killed, including the leader. The balance were captured and taken to Santiago for execution. The stores of the expedition were also captured, including two millions in currency, several hundred rifles and three or four pieces of artillery.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—The Knight Templar procession to day was over a mile in length. The Grand Commander-Officers and Chasseurs were mounted and wore white plumes and sashes with gold hilted swords. Several Commanderies marched in triangles and squares, which provoked great applause. The streets were beautifully decorated.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Mexican advances state that the newly discovered gold mines in Calima district, one hundred and twenty miles in length, are richer than those of California. The people are rushing there from all sections.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Intelligence has reached here from Cuban sources of a fight between the Revolutionary force and Spanish troops, near Puerto Real Padre. The Cuban troops, numbering 2,000, were attacked in their entrenchments by Spaniards, newly double their number, and were thrice repulsed. Loss of the Cubans less than one hundred killed and wounded.

The Spanish loss was more than three times greater. The Spaniards retreated, leaving a number of their wounded on the field.

The result of this battle has had the most encouraging effects upon the Cuban army which is reported as gaining strength every day from the very best portion of the people of the Island.

The want of harmony between officers of the Government troops in the field and the volunteers who have taken possession of the government of the Island, is exhibiting itself in a demoralization of the Spanish troops and the large number of desertions to the Cuban army.

This condition of things has given a new impulse and strength to the Cuban cause, the leaders having no doubts as to the ultimate result.

A number of recruits, mostly from Virginia, left Washington yesterday and to-day for Cuba, which is rendezvousing on the Southern coast, preparatory to joining the Cuban army.

FROM GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, June 16.—During a circus performance at Sparta yesterday a personal difficulty arose between a few whites and blacks, in which one negro was killed and another fatally wounded. The affair threatened to be more general and serious, but was suppressed by the sheriff and leading citizens.

Adkin D. Lewis, a citizen of Burke county, was assassinated in his field to-day by a negro, who stabbed him to death and fled.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Revenue Department has directed the suppression of some eighteen illicit distilleries in Lee county, Va. The military will be employed, if necessary, to enforce the law.

Brownlow published a letter in favor of universal suffrage. He says for the republicans of Tennessee to continue the restrictive policy when the party everywhere else opposes it is mischievous and ridiculous.

A SHOW OF SNAKES.

Serpents by the Million.—The Prairie in the Neighborhood of Taylorville, Ill. Lately Adorned with Reptiles.—The Greatest Snake Story on Record.

From the Illinois State Register, June 1.

The great storm of last Friday night will be long remembered in this State. In addition to the details heretofore given, we have information from a reliable citizen of great damage at Taylorville. The storm burst in its full fury at that place about dark, and the rain fell in torrents. The electric storm presented the same feature as here.

The wind, however, was more violent and with tremendous blowing rain, strength from every direction. Several buildings were damaged, and young hickory trees actually twisted off by the wind. But the most singular phenomenon, and one which was not touchsafely to any other community, was a shower of snakes. We have heretofore read of showers of sand, of fish, and sometimes of flesh, never before of a shower of snakes; and yet we are well assured that the phenomenon which occurred on last Friday night can be described in no more fitting terms.

On Saturday and Sunday last every ditch, creek and pool on the prairie north of Taylorville was alive with mud-colored creatures, which have been described to us as being from one and a half to two feet long, and of three-fourths of an inch to an inch in diameter. This diameter is very slightly lessened at the head and tail. The tail is flat, like that of an eel, but has no caudal fin; indeed there is no fin at all. The head is in shape that of an eel, but the mouth is that of a snake. The eyes are small, and the ears are simply orifices. Immediately behind the head, on each side, is a flipper, like that of a turtle, say three-fourths of an inch to an inch in length, including the limb, which is a perfectly developed joint. In color, these snakes, or whatever they are, are of a dark blue.

The number of these creatures is beyond all estimate. They swim in every branch and puddle of water. Their mode of progression in addition to the water, is by the use of the flipper described above, and they swim entirely under the water or with the head and a few inches of the body above the surface, thus indicating that the flippers are not absolutely essential. Boys and men take them from the pools in hundreds, and they are brought to town for inspection.

We are willing to admit that our knowledge of the ichthyology is not sufficient to determine what these creatures are. They are very voracious and belligerent. These creatures are of the genus ophiophagus, or snake-eaters, having no teeth, and are evidently unprepared for attack, and except by flight are defenseless. Furthermore, they have no fins, and their flippers are only adjuncts, and not their principal means of progression. They are not serpents, as they want fangs, either hooded or naked, which invariably distinguish the order of ophiophagus.

It is the universal testimony of all the people of the country that no creature anything like these was ever before seen by them. The size renders it certain that they have not been developed there, and it is almost equally certain that the storm brought them there.

This storm, which passed over so large an extent of country, and was so violent, undoubtedly gathered its most of such storms, in the vast plains of the north-west. The most plausible theory which occurs to us as accounting for the presence of these fishes is, that the tornado in passing over some lake or river in the immense, unknown region of the north-west, drew up water, and with it these animals which are evidently amphibious. Near Taylorville the central body of the storm was dissipated, as is shown by the fact that the wind blew in gusts from all directions, and these creatures fell to the earth to astonish the people and perplex the scientific.

THE SECRET OF LIFE.—How many take a wrong view of life, and waste their energies and destroy their nervous system, in endeavoring to accumulate wealth, without thinking of the present happiness they are throwing away. It is not wealth nor high station which makes a man happy. Many of the past mistakes on earth have been made by a man, sunny spirit, which knows how to bear little trials, and enjoy little comforts and which thus extracts happiness from every incident of life.

To the People of Alabama.

In another column will be found the Revised Code of the Montgomery Daily and Weekly Mail. The Mail is printed on new broad faced type of the very latest style, and the publishers take pleasure in presenting it to the People of the South in its new dress, with a greatly increased list of subscribers and advertisers, with the greatest confidence that they will not only find more in it to interest and entertain them than ever before, but that in a few months, its Political news will be more gratifying than any we have had for years. It will indicate our early return to power, and the re-establishment of State prosperity. In the uncertainty which now exists as to our political and business future, there is every reason why all heads of families, and everybody connected with them, should take a well-conducted journal.

The Mail, beginning its career fifteen years ago, under the editorial management of JOHNSON J. HOOKER, that stalwart defender of State Rights, needs no introduction to the people of Alabama. Its history for the past three years, in which it has never ceased to contest every inch of ground with the oppressor, and to which it has been made to feel the vengeance of an insuperable enemy, in the forcible removal of legal advisers, and finally to the actual imprisonment of its editor by the command of a lawless impostor, appeals to the democracy of Alabama to stand by us, as we have stood by them. The appeal is, however, hardly necessary. The Mail has such solid assurances of sympathy and support that the people of Alabama are true to those who are true to themselves. Thanking our friends for their constant favors, we beg them to continue sending us lists of subscribers from every section of the State.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

THE Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Phthisis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address

Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings county, New York.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.

A GENTLEMAN who has suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence,

JOHN B. OGDEN, No. 42 Cedar Street, New York.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA, }
Cathoon County, }
Court of Probate, special term, June 1, 1869.

In the matter of the Estate of Thomas R. Rowland, Adm'r.

This day came Mary E. Rowland, Adm'r. of the said Estate, and filed her account and vouchers for a final settlement thereof—It is therefore ordered by the court that the 6th day of July, 1869 be set as a day to hear and determine said settlement, and that three successive weeks notice be given in the Jacksonville Republican, a newspaper published in the Town of Jacksonville, so that all persons interested may attend and contest the same, if they think proper.

A. WOODS, Judge of Probate.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediment to Marriage, etc.; also Gonorrhea, Emission, and Firs, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author, in an admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers,

CHAS. J. C. KLINE & CO., 127 Bowery, N. Y. Post Office Box 4,586.

STRAYED.

From the undersigned, and on the 23rd May, 1869, an old dark colored mare, about 9 or 10 years old, common size, well formed, marked with gear, (throws her ears forward very close together). Also a horse colt about one year old, of dark color. They started in the direction of Gadsden.

A reasonable reward will be paid for their delivery, or for information.

MISS E. I. WEESNER,

DRESS MAKER,

Southern Independence.

The following sensible communication is copied from a late number of the Meigs (Ga.) Messenger, and we commend the views to our readers.

Let us determine to make our own provisions, bread and meat, sugar and syrup. We can do this, and make as much cotton as we should wish to make besides. If we only make cotton enough to supply the European demand, we will get about as much money for it as we would for twice the quantity.

Let us make everything we need that is made out of wood, iron and leather. We have every variety of timber growing on our land. Let us use it, and pay our own mechanics.

Let us invest every surplus dollar in manufacturing, and in a short time we shall not only be able to manufacture our own supplies, but able to convert a large portion of our cotton into its most valuable form before we sell it, and secure to ourselves the profit heretofore realized by the New York speculators and New England manufacturers.

In short, let us stop the drain of money from South to North. When we do this, we will have gained our independence, and shall have it in our power to levy an embargo on commercial intercourse with the North, and to dictate to those who are doing everything in their power to oppress and degrade us, the terms upon which it shall be removed.

But in order to succeed in this great enterprise, there must be concert of action and combination of capital. But few persons have sufficient capital to go into manufacturing alone, but if we form companies and combine our capital, we can put in operation a factory in every county where cotton is grown. Let there be at least one manufacturing company in every county where cotton is growing. Let the stock be let out in small shares—so small that every farmer can take stock. So soon as there is sufficient capital raised to start a factory—even a small one let us send to England for the machinery and a competent person to put it into operation. Even a small factory would be a blessing to the community. It would give employment to indigent women and children, and open a market to the farmers for many articles of food that they could not otherwise dispose of.

Let there be an agricultural association formed in each county, and let each county be represented in the annual State Conventions, and let each State be represented in a Southern Agricultural Convention, to be held at some central point, at least once a year. In this only we may secure harmony and concert of action.

Let the press, and our leading and most influential citizens through the South take hold of this matter in earnest, and devote their minds, hearts, and their energies to the emancipation and elevation of the South. Let us have a South that is not a Southern Agricultural Convention, to be held at some central point, at least once a year. In this only we may secure harmony and concert of action.

they always vote unanimously as a church, it is hard to bring them out upon ordinary issues. Those who are timid in such matters—more so now, as Virginia they unanimously voted for secession, and regarding it as a mistake, are more disposed than ever to let governmental matters alone.

In religious affairs they differ chiefly from other sects in the strictness of their lives, though their form of worship has some peculiarities based, as they say, upon the Scriptures and ancient practice. They baptize by immersion, plunging the convert three times into the water, face forward.

In the communion—which always occurs at night, and in the open air—they first a substantial repast of soups and meats, &c., at the end of which they wash each others feet, the men interchanging embraces and kisses, and the women caressing each other, the final feature being the taking of bread and wine.

The unanimous views of these people by their fellow citizens is that their removal, if not their extermination, is a moral, inoffensive and thrifty, but they never contribute a cent to public improvements of any sort.

A Loving Daughter.

In the North of Europe, in a country called Sweden, the winters are long, snowy and cold. The summers are short, but lovely, especially in the valleys between the high mountains.

The inhabitants of the country are noted for their industry, virtue and contentment. An industrious and good people are always contented. One morning a long while ago, a certain King of Sweden, called Gustavus III. was riding through the villages of one of his royal valleys, not far from Stockholm, the capital city. As he passed along he saw a girl filling her pail with water, which gushed from the cool rocks shadowing the road side.

He stopped at the fountain, and asked the girl for a drink. She did not know the royal stranger, but gracefully stepped forward and lifted the pitcher to his lips as he sat upon his horse. She was evidently very poor, but her kindness of countenance and gentleness of politeness so much attracted the king's attention, and touched his heart. Seeing, by her appearance, that she was a child of poverty, he told her if she would go to the city, he would find her a pleasant home.

"Alas good sir," answered the girl, "Providence has placed me here, and I am not anxious to change my position in life. I am content; and if I were not, it would be impossible for me to accept your kind offer."

"Indeed! Why not?" said the king in some surprise.

"Because my mother is poor and sickly," the girl replied.

"And you remain at home to take care of your mother?"

"I am her only help and companion," said she, looking upon the ground with a modesty that won the sympathies of the king. "I am happy in my lot, and am thankful that I can take care of my dear mother. No offer, however tempting, could induce me to leave her," said the noble king.

"Where is your mother?" inquired the king.

"In your little hut by the side of the road," said she, pointing towards the humble dwelling. It was a low building, covered with moss, and vines, very neat and clean, but so old that it appeared a very poor shelter in time of cold or storm.

The king alighted from his horse and followed the girl into the hut to see her mother. He found her sitting, leaning upon a bed of straw—a pale, thin woman—looking forward only to the grave as a bed of rest. The king was almost overcome at the pitiable sight, and said, while tears came into his eyes, "I feel sorry, mother, to find you so destitute and afflicted."

"Yes my dear sir," said the lady, in a feeble voice, "but I am so glad that God has given me such a loving daughter. She is always trying to relieve and comfort me. My God, His love, remember and bless her!" And her voice was choked by sobs, and her face wet with tears.

The good king wept with the poor widow. What a sight that was! How the good angels hovered over that hut, breathing joy into the three hearts—the suffering woman's sympathizing king's and the loving daughter's! The monarch never received such a blessing on his throne as in that hut by the wayside. He handed the daughter a purse of gold, and directed her to a better home, where she and her mother might be comfortable, saying as he departed, "Go my young friend, in your way of dutiful love and care, and you shall lack for nothing while I have the means to help you. I am your king, Farwell."

The king ever remembered the poor family, and made provision to have a sum of money regularly sent to the woman for her support; and, at the mother's death, provided the daughter with a suitable fortune.

How blessed it is for children to love and honor their parents! As the good king loved and rewarded his loving daughter, giving her a better house and means of comfort. So will the Father in Heaven, that rich and great King, love and reward all good children who are loving and obedient to their parents. Let all our young readers try to imitate this noble girl.

We call attention to the advertisement of Darby's Proprietary Fluid. We do so with pleasure, from the fact that we know it to be what it is represented. We have used it in our family for years, and would stand at the head of the list; and it is, as a medicine, invaluable. Read what is claimed for it, and keep a bottle always on hand. To our country friends we would recommend that they keep it on hand, for its medical qualities in dyspepsia, Ulcers, Sore Throat, Burns, Chronic Diarrhea, Catarrh, &c., &c. We have been told that it is a first rate thing to restore hair and prevent it from falling out. Those inclined to baldness would do well to try it.—Med. Rec. Dec. 28th, 1868.

To the People of Alabama.

In another column will be found the licensed rates of the Montgomery Weekly Mail. The Mail is printed on new broad faced type of the very latest style, and the publishers take pleasure in presenting it to the People of the South in its new dress, with a greatly increased list of subscribers and advertisers, with the greatest contentment that they will not only find more in it to interest and entertain them than ever before, but that in a few months, its Political news will be more gratifying than any we have had for years. It will indicate our early return to power, and the recommitment of State prosperity. In the uncertainty which now exists as to our political and business future, there is every reason why all heads of families, and everybody connected with them, should take a well-conducted journal.

The Mail, beginning its career fifteen years ago, under the editorial management of Jonathan J. Moore, that stalwart defender of State Rights, needs no introduction to the people of Alabama. Its history for the past three years, in which it has never ceased to contest every inch of ground with the oppressor, and to which it has been made to feel the vengeance of an unscrupulous enemy, is the forcible removal of legal barriers, and finally, to the actual imprisonment of its editor by the command of a knavish impostor, appeals to the democracy of Alabama to stand by us, as we have stood by them. The appeal is, however, hardly necessary; The Mail has such solid assurances of sympathy and support that it knows that the people of Alabama are true to those who are true to themselves. Thinking our friends for their constant favors, we beg them to continue sending us lists of subscribers from every section of the State.

The worsted garments of the Pyralis are showing itself daily in the blooming cheeks of our former emancipated citizens, all of whom declare that until they tried this great chills and fever expeller, they knew not what it was to be clear, even for a few days, of the scourge of our southern country; but thanks to science and our enterprising townsmen, we need no longer fear this great scourge, and we can now go on our way rejoicing that at last a conqueror is at our hands which will instantly expel from our system chills and fever, dumb ague, and those diseases incidental to malarious climates. Keep a bottle of the Pyralis in the house, and as soon as the chill or fever is felt commence taking it, and at once you are really making a lasting and permanent cure.

Kayton's Oil of Life cures all pains and aches, and is the great rheumatic remedy.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

THE Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), and the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure Cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address

Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings county, New York.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.

Court of Probate, special term, June 1, 1869. In the matter of the Estate of Thomas R. Rowland, dec.

THIS day came Mary E. Rowland, Administratrix of the said Estate, and filed her account and vouchers for a full settlement thereof.—It is therefore ordered by the court that the 6th day of July, 1869 be set as a day to hear and determine said settlement, and that three successive weeks notice be given in the Jacksonville Republican, a newspaper published in the Town of Jacksonville, so that all persons interested may attend and contest the same, if they think proper.

A. WOODS, Judge of Probate. June 5, 1869.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Cutler's Celebrated Essay on the rational cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediment to Marriage, etc.; also, Gonorrhoea, Eczema, and Fila, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful experience, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land, every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also, Dr. Cutler's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers,
